LESSONS LEARNED...

- This target group is dependent on a good language coach to be able to fully participate. Quality.
- Planning and flexibility as dependent on each other, not opposites.
- Motivation starts in the feeling of meaningfulness.
- Count on the power of the group!
- It's good to work together as teachers as well, it's intense.
- As a leader you need to be chaos-resistant and trust the process.
- Important to give everybody a voice from the start and recurringly during the course. "The conversation model".
- Mix short theory lessons with experimental and laborative cooperative parts. Learning by doing.
- Time to reflect by yourself is essential, and so is sharing.
- Working in a group speeds up learning, but sometimes learning takes time. Plant a seed...
